RevMark™, The QuickDraw Marker, announced today that Joe Gannascoli (Vito from the Sopranos) will be their new spokesman. Together they will be exhibiting RevMark, The QuickDraw Marker in booth #8660 at The National Hardware Show in Las Vegas May 4th-6th.

Garwood, New Jersey (PRWEB) May 04, 2016 -- RevMark™, The QuickDraw Marker, announced today that Joe Gannascoli (Vito from the Sopranos) will be their new spokesman. Together they will be exhibiting RevMark, The QuickDraw Marker in booth #8660 at The National Hardware Show in Las Vegas May 4th-6th. “I am amazed by this product and can't wait for the Vegas Show” says Gannascoli of the Sopranos.

Developed by a contractor, the RevMark™ has a patented reverse clip cap that attaches to your belt or slides into your pocket. There is no more searching for your marker, losing your cap, putting down your project to open your marker or using your teeth to take off the cap. With one hand you can take off the cap, make your mark and slide it back in place right at your side. The RevMark is manufactured by Pen Company of America in Garwood, NJ <http://www.pencoamerica.com>.

RevMark™ is now a proud supporter of Habitat for Humanity. By donating markers to the workers on numerous building sites across the country, RevMark™ is establishing the brand as one that is not only innovative, but committed to making a difference. “We are thrilled to have RevMark™ and their donations as part of our Habitat For Humanity here in Tennessee” said a volunteer of Habitat. In addition to contributing to Habitat for Humanity, RevMark™ had a prominent presence in the ARCA series and NASCAR and Race Weekend at the 2016 Daytona 500. RevMark™ sponsored 4 cars in the ARCA Series as well as sponsored the Lira Motorsports NASCAR Camping World Truck.

About the National Hardware Show

The National Hardware Show celebrates a rich history spanning 71 years of serving the home improvement marketplace. From its early beginnings in New York during the post-World War II housing boom and eventual move to Chicago in the 1970s, to today's current location in Las Vegas, the National Hardware Show continually evolves through the industry's involvement, commitment and passion to improving America's quality of life through their homes. Today, the National Hardware Show is the place for global manufacturers, associations, organizations and the media to unveil their new products, ideas and insight to a broad spectrum of home improvement resellers.
